Notwithstanding the late severe losses to farmers and others by high water the general expression from every one is that the year 1902 has been one of unusual prosperity.

A tall young man from one of the byways East of our town called at a store on Main street as he was returning from Maysville a few evenings ago to rest a while and to announce the harrowing fact that Maysville was full of small-pox and would be "contaminated" the next day.

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER.

By special arrangement with Mr.
Frank L. Perley, who presents Miss Effie Ellsler in Julia Marlowe's complete original production of "When Knighthood Was in Flower," Managers secured, under a large guarantee, a presentation of this superbly mounted sixteenth century drama. Mr. Perley's organization is one of the heaviest dramatic productions on tour. The company consists of 50 people and two 60-foot baggage cars are required for the transportation of the massive and corpulent scenery and special mechanical effects. This splendidly appointed production visits here on Wednesday, January 7th, at Washington Opera-house.

Seats go on sale Monday morning at Nelson's.

KENTUCKY'S FINANCES.

Now Has More Than One Million Dollars in the Treasury.

partments of State Auditor and Treasurer for Kentucky shows that there is on deposit to the credit of the state at 51.

To this will shortly be added $1,325, 000, the Civil War claim pending before Congress.

During the year the state expended by legislative appropriation $118,091.30, expenses of General Assembly session

MISS ROSE OWENS,

No. 720 Seventeenth St.,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

"If every suffering woman has the same experience with Wine of Cardui that I had, your medicine will be most popular. About a year ago I began to have a worn out feeling with lassitude, pains in the back and head which kept increasing every month. I felt that I needed something, but to get the right medicine was the trouble. I finally decided on your Wine of Cardui and only needed to take three bottles when I was fully recovered."

Miss Rose Owens.

If you are a suffering woman you would say to you that Wine of Cardui seldom fails to completely cure any case of female ills. We say emphatically, it never fails to benefit. Every day hundreds of sufferers are writing to our Ladies' Advisory Department. The letters are opened by persons competent to give advice. Mrs.
Jones was cured by following the advice which was freely given her by the Ladies' Advisory Department. Miss Owens was cured without advice by just buying a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from her druggist and taking this great medicine in the privacy of her home. No doctor's examination, treatment or advice is necessary. You have read what these two cured women have written. Is this not enough to lead you to determine to be rid of suffering?

August 13, 1900, Mrs. W. H. Jones, of Cameron, Mo., writes:

"I suffered terribly at monthly periods for three years. I would sometimes go for seven months with no flow at all. Now I have my health back again and am expecting to be confined in January. I cannot praise your medicine enough."

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

There were 263 births and 562 deaths in Lexington last year.
